Dr. Sandro Nücken advises our clients on all national and international VAT matters and represents them in dealings with the tax authorities, as well as the tax courts. Sandro has particular expertise in international issues, M&A transactions, advising foreign taxable persons, as well as offering support with VAT appeals and legal proceedings. Further, Sandro focuses on advising companies operating in the sectors rail & logistics, industry & trade, media & sports. He also supports clients in submitting VAT-relevant returns in Germany and abroad.

Sandro is the German correspondent for the International Bureau of Fiscal Documentation (IBFD) for VAT, a member of the International VAT Club and the UmsatzsteuerForum e.V. In 2017, Sandro was seconded for several months to the French law firm CMS Francis Lefebvre in Paris. As part of his legal clerkship, he was seconded from the Federal Foreign Office to the OECD (Office of the German Permanent Representation) in Paris. Sandro is fluent in German, English and French. He is a Fachanwalt für Steuerrecht (specialist lawyer for tax law) and regularly publishes specialist articles and lectures on VAT topics.
